

Greencoats by Kate Innes - Historical Genre – response quiz

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Birmingham is _____
(capital city of UK/ an important city of UK/ second city of UK).

2. Birmingham was important to the war effort because

(it was a port/it was a centre of manufacturing – making things/it was where the Government was)

3. Bombing – which was known as the Birmingham Blitz - began in Birmingham in _____ (1939, 1940, 1941)

4. Evacuation in WW2 meant

(staying at home and changing schools/moving with your whole family to another area/leaving your family home and going to a safer area)

5. Historical fiction means _____
(history facts/a story set in past events/a story)

6. Why did Shropshire take evacuees?

(It was a rural area and safer for children than in cities/It was a rural area and had lots of space/It was a rural area and there were lots of schools for children to go to)

7. What would city children have noticed about being evacuated to Shropshire?

8. Describe how the evacuees might have felt about leaving Birmingham or a big city and coming to the countryside?
